

Cub Camp Kit List

Equipment required at the camp - to be packed in a rucksack (or similar). If you need more than one container, please DO NOT use labelled/unlabelled dustbin liners, as these have a tendency to go missing.

ESSENTIAL ITEMS:

TEDDY BEAR

Uniform to be worn when travelling to and from camp
Sleeping Bag
Sleeping Mat (e.g. Karrimat)
Pyjamas
Personal washing kit in waterproof bag
Towels - not too large
T-Shirts (include one with long sleeves)
Shorts - these are standard wear at camp, so bring more than one pair
Long trousers (NOT jeans as these are difficult to dry and can be dangerous on some activities)
Waterproof and windproof anorak or coat
Spare underwear and socks
Pullovers - include one for sleeping in (It can be cold at nights even in summer)
Training shoes or plimsolls
Strong boots or shoes for walking
Unbreakable mug, plate, bowl, knife, fork, spoon & teaspoon (marked in a way that will withstand rough washing up)
Tea towel
Torch and spare batteries

DON'T FORGET:

Plastic bags for clean and dirty clothes
Wire coat hanger and two clothes pegs
Wellington boots
Water bottle
Small day sack for hike

YOU MAY WISH TO BRING:

Blanket (for extra warmth under your sleeping bag)
Suntan lotion and insect repellent
Sun hat
Book or magazine to read
Camera and spare film (in this day and age!?)

Pocket money is NOT required. There is nothing to spend it on!

Please note: Knives of any kind are NOT permitted for cubs. Similarly mobile phones, iPods, iPads, laptops, mainframe computers, household appliances (including the kitchen sink - which most cubs tend to bring), radios or computer games are not permitted. Any other electrical equipment is brought at the owners risk and will be confiscated and returned at the end of camp if the Camp Leader considers that it is causing a nuisance.

DO NOT pack sweets or extra food - we have several cubs with allergies plus food in tents encourages insects or other vermin. Cubs will not starve!

Our insurance does not cover personal possessions and property.

ALL EQUIPMENT/CLOTHING MUST BE CLEARLY MARKED WITH THE OWNER'S NAME.
